

LOCAL MATTERS.

Col. W. A. HERRINGWAY is the authorized agent of the "Daily News" for the State of South Carolina.

FRATERNITY.—The firing heard yesterday afternoon in the harbor was merely practicing with shells by the double-ender Chicopee.

J. B. D. DEBOW, heretofore the publisher of DeBow's Review, has received Executive pardon, and designs arranging to again publish the same periodical in Washington.

DEAD BODY.—A gentleman informed us yesterday that a dead body had been found in the woods at Mount Pleasant, and that the Coroner was summoning a Jury of Inquest to examine into the matter at the time he left for the city.

THE GALLOWS.—The execution of Billy Wilson and William Arnel, for the murder of J. W. SKINNER, took place at Georgetown, S. C., on Saturday last, with the appropriate solemnity which such an occasion demands.

PRINTING.—We would call the attention of our patrons to the advertisement of THAD. C. JOWITT, which will be found in our columns.

LA CRIOLA!—This establishment, under the proprietorship of one of the best fellows in the world, JOSE JARA, comes out this morning with an advertisement modelled after a late style, and is sure to be read.

SAFES.—Our paper of this morning contains an advertisement of Messrs. W. M. BIRD & Co., stating that they are agents of MARVIN'S Burglar and Fire Proof Safes.

AUCTION SALE BY DAVID BARROW.—Our readers will observe that an auction sale will take place this morning, at 10 o'clock, at No. 133 East Bay, where fine groceries, &c., will be disposed of.

GROCERIES, ETC.—We would refer our readers generally, and those who are in want of groceries, by wholesale especially, to an advertisement of CAHILL & Co., which appears in our columns today.

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, TRUNKS, ETC.—One of the largest depots for the sale of these different articles, always so much in demand, has been opened at No. 144 Meeting-street, under the charge of Mr. JOHN COMMINS.

EUREKA!—This heads an advertisement of a celebrated Medicated Bitters, of which CAHILL & Co. are the Agents.

AN ADVERTISEMENT from F. CONNER & Co. will strike the eye of the reader as he glances over the paper, and we would suggest that it be read with great care by dealers, for it contains many things at wholesale which are very much wanted at the present time, and which can be obtained there cheap for cash.

AUCTION AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.—Among the many old names and firms that are coming before the eye of the public every day, there are none that gratifies us more to announce as having recommenced business than WILBUR & SON.

CHARLES L. GUILLEAUME.—This gentleman's card will be found in to-day's issue, announcing to the public his position as a General Commission and Forwarding Merchant, at No. 145 Meeting-street.

CHARLES E. KANAPAK, Esq.—It will be noticed with much pleasure, in our issue of to-day, that this gentleman has returned to the performance of his duties as Magistrate, at his old office in Chalmers-street.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.—We are glad to announce the re-establishment of the excellent Commercial School of the Messrs. FAYOR. This useful institution was established in this city in 1845, and hundreds of our citizens can testify to the great advantage it has offered in the attainment of commercial knowledge.

LA CRIOLA! LA CRIOLA!

Jeff. Davis
